Your 2-Day Travel Plan for Split

Day 1

Morning (9:00 AM - 12:00 PM):

* Start your day with a traditional Croatian breakfast at Café Central (Trg Gaje Bulata 1) and try their famous burek (flaky pastry filled with cheese, spinach, or meat).

* Visit the Diocletian's Palace (Trg Gaje Bulata 1), a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of Split's most iconic landmarks. Explore the ancient Roman palace and its many courtyards.

Lunch (12:30 PM - 2:00 PM):

* Head to Šibenik Street (Ulica Svetog Ivana 3) and try some delicious food (Šibenik Street, no. 3). This casual eatery serves a variety of meat and vegetarian options.

Afternoon (2:30 PM - 6:00 PM):

* Visit the Mestrovic Gallery (Žrnovnica, no. 178) to admire the work of the most famous sculptor. The gallery is located in his former summer residence and features over 3,000 pieces of art.

* Take a stroll along the Riva, Split's scenic waterfront promenade, and enjoy the views of the Adriatic Sea.

Evening (7:00 PM onwards):

* For dinner, head to Konoba Marjan (Mestrovica Street, no. 23) for some traditional Dalmatian cuisine, including their famous tiramisu.

* End your night with a visit to Beer Temple (Trg Ivana Zajca 3), a popular craft beer bar with over 20 beers on tap. Enjoy a cold one and soak up the lively atmosphere.

Travel Tips:

- * Getting around: Use public buses or taxis, or walk/bike if you prefer.
- * Practical information: Don't forget to try some local coffee at Café Central in the morning!
- * Any other useful tips: Be prepared for crowds and lines at popular attractions.
